) INJUNCTION AND OTHER RELIEF

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's combined filing of a Motion for Summary Judgment against Defendant Mirko Schacke ("Schacke") and Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment against Defendant TradeMasters, USA, LLC ("TradeMasters"). On August 15, 2016, Plaintiff, United States Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission" or "CFTC"), filed a Complaint against Defendants TradeMasters, USA, LLC ("TradeMasters") and Mirko Schacke ("Schacke") (collectively "Defendants"), seeking injunctive and other equitable relief, as well as the imposition of civil penalties, for violations of the Commodity Exchange Act ("Act"), 7 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. (2012), and Commission Regulations, 17 C.F.R. §§ 1 et seq. (2015).

Schacke answered the Complaint on September 14, 2016. After receiving briefs and conducting an evidentiary hearing, this Court entered an order of Preliminary Injunction on September 22, 2016. (Docket No. 37) Neither Schacke's Answer nor any other evidence presented to the Court creates a genuine issue of material fact regarding any of the allegations set forth in the Complaint.

Defendant TradeMasters was served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint on August 24, 2016. TradeMasters has failed to appear or answer the Complaint within the time permitted by Fed. R. Civ. P. 12. Upon the Commission's motion, the Clerk entered a default against TradeMasters on November 4, 2016. (Docket No. 42) As such, the well-pleaded allegations of Plaintiff's Complaint are taken as true as against TradeMasters.

The Court has reviewed and carefully considered the Complaint, the Plaintiff's Motions

1 for Summary Judgment and Default Judgment, Statement of Uncontested Facts and 2 Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Plaintiff's Motions, including the Joint 3 Appendix of Exhibits and the entire record in this case, and the Court being otherwise advised 4 in the premises, it is hereby:

5 ORDERED that the Commission's Motions for Summary Judgment against Defendant
6 Schacke, Default Judgment against Defendant TradeMasters, and Requests for entry of a 7 Permanent Injunction, Disgorgement and a Civil Monetary Penalty against both Defendants are 8 GRANTED in all respects. Accordingly, the Court enters findings of fact, conclusions of law, 9 and an Order of Final Judgment against both Defendants and for a Permanent Injunction,
10 Disgorgement and a Civil Monetary Penalty ("Order") pursuant to Section 6c and 6d of the Act, 11 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2012), as set forth herein.

12 I. FINDINGS OF FACT

13 THE COURT FINDS:

14 A. The Parties

15 1. Plaintiff, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, is an independent federal 16 regulatory agency charged with the responsibility for administering and enforcing the provisions 17 of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. (2012), and the Regulations promulgated under it, 17 C.F.R.
18 §§ 1 et seq. (2014).

19 2. Defendant Trade Masters USA, LLC is a Nevada limited liability company. The 20 firm was registered as a limited liability company on August 7, 2013, and has maintained a business address in Henderson, Nevada. TradeMasters is wholly owned and managed by co-Defendant Schacke, and during the relevant period Schake hired and supervised at least one salesman who solicited public customers to purchase TradeMasters' automated trading software.
Trade Masters has never been registered with the Commission in any capacity.

1 3. Defendant Mirko Schacke, a/k/a “Mick” Schacke, is an individual who resides in 2 Antioch, California. Schacke is, and was the sole owner and manager of TradeMasters and,
3 therefore, possessed and exercised control over TradeMasters. Schacke has never been 4 registered with the Commission in any capacity.

4 B. Defendants’ Fraudulent Solicitations

5 4. In mid-2013, Schacke bought a commodity futures trading software package off 6 of the shelf, white labelled the product and called it his own TradeMasters trading software. He 7 began marketing the TradeMasters product to the public through a website he developed,
8 www.trademastersusa.com, which remained active until mid-September 2016. Schacke also used
9 various social media devices such as YouTube and Facebook to market the TradeMasters 10 software. Schacke sold his TradeMasters trading software via a “software license” within a 11 range from $1500 to $20,000. Schacke also charged customers a recurring “monthly access fee”
12 of $250 to $1,000, which entitled customers to “system setup,” “training activities and updates,” 13 and ongoing personal trading support from Schacke. Schacke sold software licenses to, and 14 collected monthly access fees from, 39 customers for a combined total of $168,626.

13 5. At various times from July 2013 through March 2016, Schacke maintained 14 several personal trading accounts at futures commission merchants (“FCMs”) registered with the 15 Commission. Schacke used the TradeMasters software to varying degrees when trading for his 16 personal accounts. In the aggregate, Schacke’s personal accounts had a negative 23.77% rate of 17 return for 2013, a negative 19.00% rate of return for 2014, a positive 266.47% rate of return for 18 2015 and a negative 24.87% rate of return through March 2016. Overall, the accounts had a net
19 profit of $8,121.51 on a net investment of approximately $43,000 from July 2013 through March 20 2016.

1 6. When selling the TradeMasters software, Schacke published performance results
2 on the TradeMasters website claiming large profits. Schacke told customers that the 3 performance results reflected on the website were actual trading but Schacke and TradeMasters 4 have no support for these profit claims.

5 7. The Defendants knowingly and recklessly made material misrepresentations or 6 attempted to deceive members of the public they were soliciting to buy his TradeMasters
7 software and he did so with scienter, including by misrepresenting on the TradeMasters website 8 and by other means that:

- 9 a. the TradeMasters software was fully automated and could result in profitable
10 trading for customers without “coaching” from Schacke;
- 11 b. hypothetical trading profits were actual trading profits;
- 12 c. that TradeMasters’ “coaches” have more than 2 decades of active day trading
13 experience when Schacke was the only “coach” and had no futures trading
14 experience prior to marketing the TradeMasters software in June 2013;
- 15 d. a customer gained more than 500% in 2014;
- 16 e. a customer gained more than 40% “in only 10 weeks”;
- 17 f. “most users manage to generate a monthly income of 5 to $10,000”;
- 18 g. some customers “quickly reached [income of] 15 to $30,000 each and every 19 month”;
- 20 h. a 300% return in just three months was earned by a “real customer”;
- 21 i. a video testimonial came from a purported “real customer” when the testimonial
22 was from a paid actor who reported selected results from Schacke’s proprietary 23 account; and

j. reported profits were earned with new software Schacke began marketing at the end of 2014 when they were actually earned with the old TradeMasters software no longer made available to prospective customers.

C. TradeMasters acted as a CTA and Schacke acted as an AP

8. Section 1a(12) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(12) (2012), defines a Commodity Trading Advisor (“CTA”), in relevant part, as any person who, for compensation or profit, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through publications, writings, or electronic media, as to the value of or the advisability of trading in any contract of sale of a commodity for future delivery made or to be made on or subject to the rules of a contract market.

9. Regulation 1.3(aa)(3), 17 C.F.R. § 1.3(aa)(3), defines an associated person (“AP”), as any natural person associated with a CTA “as a partner, officer, employee, consultant, or agent (or any natural person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions), in any capacity which involves (i) the solicitation of a client’s or prospective client’s discretionary account, or (ii) the supervision of any person or person so engaged.”

10. Schacke continuously provided technical support to customers who were using the TradeMasters software by sending an email or posting online the daily or weekly settings for the markets being traded. Customers took the trade settings and applied them to their account without knowing what the settings meant or why Schacke had recommended them.

11. At least two TradeMasters customers complained to Schacke that the TradeMasters trading software was not yielding the profitable results that were advertised and that they were, instead, losing money. Schacke agreed to try to recover the losses they experienced by personally executing trades for their trading accounts as an additional service for the same TradeMasters' monthly access fee. At Schacke's direction, the customers gave Schacke and TradeMasters their trading accounts' user name and password log-in credentials.

1 including in one instance actually giving Schacke his computer, and Schacke traded for those 2 customers' accounts. Schacke's IP address was the location used to enter trades for one of those 3 customers' accounts.

4 12. Schacke traded for a third customer with whom he had struck a deal to pay
5 Schacke a percentage of the profits the customer earned while Schacke was personally executing 6 trades for him.

7 D. TradeMasters Failed to Provide Required Disclosures Concerning Testimonials

8 13. TradeMasters displayed client testimonials on the TradeMasters website. As of 9 February 13, 2016, the TradeMasters website contained at least five testimonials from purported
10 customers who claimed that they made gains after using the TradeMasters software to manage 11 their trading accounts. TradeMasters did not disclose anywhere on the TradeMasters website
12 "that the testimonial may not be representative of the experience of other clients," or prominently 13 disclose "that the testimonial is no guarantee of future performance or success." Instead, the 14 only disclaimer appearing on the website did not mention testimonials and was not located in 15 proximity to the testimonials, but was on the bottom of a separate webpage that did not contain 16 any testimonials.

17 II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

18 A. Jurisdiction and Venue

19 14. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and Defendants 20 pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1, which authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person whenever it shall appear that such person has engaged, is engaging or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order thereunder.

1 15. Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c(e) of the Act, 2 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e), in that Defendant TradeMasters resides in this District and the acts and 3 practices in violation of the Act have occurred within this District.

4 B. Defendants Violated Sections 4b(a)(1)(A) and (C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C.
5 § 4b(a)(1)(A) and (C) (2012)

6 16. Section 4b(a)(1)(A) and (C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 4b(a)(1)(A), (C)(2012), makes 7 it unlawful for any person, in or in connection with any order to make, or the making of any 8 contract of sale of any commodity for future delivery that is made, or to be made, on or subject
9 to the rules of a designated contract market, for or on behalf of, or with, any other person:

10 (A) to cheat or defraud or attempt to cheat or defraud the other 11 person;

12 ***

13 (C) willfully to deceive or attempt to deceive the other person by any 14 means whatsoever in regard to any order or contract or the disposition 15 or execution of any order or contract, or in regard to any act of 16 agency performed, with respect to any order or contract for or . . .
17 with the other person[.]

18 17. TradeMasters knowingly or recklessly made material misrepresentations to induce 19 members of the public to purchase commodity futures trading software to use for commodity 20 futures trading, including but not limited to misrepresenting that:

21 a. the TradeMasters software was fully automated and could result in profitable
22 trading for customers without “coaching” from Schacke;
23 b. hypothetical trading profits were actual trading profits;

- c. that TradeMasters’ “coaches” have more than 2 decades of active day trading experience when Schacke was the only “coach” and had no futures trading experience prior to marketing the TradeMasters software in June 2013;
- d. a customer gained more than 500% in 2014;
- e. a customer gained more than 40% “in only 10 weeks”;
- f. “most users manage to generate a monthly income of 5 to $10,000”;
- g. some customers “quickly reached [income of] 15 to $30,000 each and every month;
- h. a 300% return in just three months was earned by a “real customer”;
- i. a video testimonial came from a purported “real customer” when the testimonial was from a paid actor and actually reported selected results from Schacke’s proprietary account; and
- j. reported profits were earned with new software Schacke began marketing at the end of 2014 when they were actually earned with the old TradeMasters software no longer made available to prospective customers.

18. These material misrepresentations violated Sections 4b(a)(1)(A) and (C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 6b(a)(1)(A) and (C) (2012).

C. TradeMasters Violated Section 4m(1) of the Act by Failing to Register as a Commodity Trading Advisor

19. Section 4m(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6m(1) (2012), makes it unlawful for any CTA, unless registered with the Commission, to make use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce in connection with its business as a CTA.

20. TradeMasters acted as a CTA when, for compensation or profit, it exercised discretionary trading authority over customer trading accounts and executed trades for those

1 accounts, while failing to register with the Commission as a CTA in violation of Section 4m(1) 2 of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6m(1) (2012).

3 D. Schacke Violated Section 4k(3) of the Act by Failing to Register as an Associated Person of a Commodity Trading Advisor

4 21. Section 4k(3) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6k(3) (2012), in relevant part, makes it
5 unlawful for a person to be associated with a CTA as a partner, officer, employee, consultant, or 6 agent, or a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, in any capacity
7 which involves the solicitation of a client's or prospective client's discretionary account unless 8 such person is registered with the Commission under this Act as an AP of such CTA. Section 9 4k(3) of the Act further makes it unlawful for a CTA to permit such a person to become or 10 remain associated with the CTA in such a capacity if the CTA knew or should have known the 11 person was not registered as an AP.

12 22. Schacke acted as an AP of TradeMasters during the scope of his 13 employment with TradeMasters, in that he solicited customer's discretionary accounts 14 without the benefit of registration with the Commission as an AP of TradeMasters, in 15 violation of Section 4k(3) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6k(3) (2012).

16 E. Defendants Violated Section 4o of the Act by Committing Fraud by a Commodity Trading Advisor and by an Associated Person

17 23. Section 4o(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1) (2012), makes it unlawful for a CTA, 18 or an AP, by use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, directly or 19 indirectly:

20 (A) to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud any client or 21 participant or prospective client or participant; or

22 (B) to engage in any transaction, practice, or course of business 23 which operates as a fraud or deceit upon any client or participant or

1 prospective client or participant.

2 24. Defendants knowingly or recklessly made material misrepresentations to induce 3 members of the public to purchase commodity futures trading software for members of the 4 public to use for commodity futures trading, including but not limited to the misrepresentations set forth in paragraph 17 (a) – (j).

5 a. the TradeMasters software was fully automated and could result in profitable
6 trading for customers without “coaching” from Schacke;

7 b. hypothetical trading profits were actual trading profits;

8 c. that TradeMasters’ “coaches” have more than 2 decades of active day trading experience when Schacke was the only “coach” and had no futures trading experience prior to marketing the TradeMasters software in June 2013;

9 d. a customer gained more than 500% in 2014;

10 e. a customer gained more than 40% “in only 10 weeks”;

11 f. “most users manage to generate a monthly income of 5 to $10,000”;

12 g. some customers “quickly reached [income of] 15 to $30,000 each and every month;

13 h. a 300% return in just three months was earned by a “real customer”;

14 i. a video testimonial came from a purported “real customer” when the testimonial was from a paid actor and actually reported selected results from Schacke’s proprietary account; and 15 j. reported profits were earned with new software Schacke began marketing at the end of 2014 when they were actually earned with the old TradeMasters software no longer made available to prospective customers.

1 25. TradeMasters, while acting as a CTA, and Schacke, while acting as an AP, by 2 using the mails or instrumentalities of interstate commerce: (i) employed devices, schemes, or 3 artifices to defraud clients or prospective clients; and (ii) engaged in transactions, practices, or 4 courses of business which operated as a fraud or deceit upon clients, in violation of Section 4o(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1) (2012).

5 F. Defendants Violated Section 6(c)(1) of the Act and Regulation 180.1(a) by 6 Committing Fraud Through the Use of Manipulative or Deceptive Devices or Contrivances

7 26. Section 6(c)(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §9(1)(2012), provides, among other things, 8 that it is unlawful for any person “to use or employ . . . in connection with . . . a contract of sale of any commodity in interstate commerce. . . any manipulative or deceptive device or 9 contrivance, in contravention of [Commission rules and regulations].”

10 27. Regulation 180.1(a), 17 C.F.R. 180.1(a) (2015), provides, in relevant part, that it shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly:

11 In connection with any . . . contract of sale of any commodity in interstate 12 commerce. . . to intentionally or recklessly: (1) Use or employ, or attempt to use or employ, any manipulative device, scheme, or artifice to defraud; (2) Make, or 13 attempt to make, any untrue or misleading statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made not untrue or misleading; (3) Engage, or attempt to engage, in any act, practice, or course of 14 business, which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person. . .

15 28. Defendants knowingly or recklessly made material misrepresentations to induce members of the public to purchase commodity futures trading software to use for commodity
 16 futures trading, including but not limited to the misrepresentations set forth in paragraph 17(a) – 17 (j).

18 a. the TradeMasters software was fully automated and could result in profitable
 19 trading for customers without “coaching” from Schacke;
 20 b. hypothetical trading profits were actual trading profits;

- c. that TradeMasters’ “coaches” have more than 2 decades of active day trading experience when Schacke was the only “coach” and had no futures trading experience prior to marketing the TradeMasters software in June 2013;
- d. a customer gained more than 500% in 2014;
- e. a customer gained more than 40% “in only 10 weeks;”
- f. “most users manage to generate a monthly income of 5 to $10,000;”
- g. some customers “quickly reached [income of] 15 to $30,000 each and every month;
- h. a 300% return in just three months was earned by a “real customer;”
- i. a video testimonial came from a purported “real customer” when the testimonial was from a paid actor and actually reported selected results from Schacke’s proprietary account; and
- j. reported profits were earned with new software Schacke began marketing at the end of 2014 when they were actually earned with the old TradeMasters software no longer made available to prospective customers.

29. By this conduct, Defendants violated Section 6(c)(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 9(1) (2012) and Regulation 180.1(a), 17 C.F.R. § 180.1(a) (2015).

G. TradeMasters Committed Violations of 17 C.F.R. § 4.41 by Failing to Provide Required Disclosures

30. Regulation 4.41(a)(3), 17 C.F.R. § 4.41(a)(3) makes it unlawful for any CTA to refer to any testimonial, unless the advertisement or sales literature providing the testimonial prominently discloses, in pertinent part: (i) that the testimonial may not be representative of the experience of other clients; and (ii) that the testimonial is no guarantee of future performance or success.

1 31. TradeMasters, while acting as a CTA, referred to testimonials on the 2 TradeMasters website without prominently disclosing the required statement, in violation of 3 17 C.F.R. § 4.41(a)(3).

4 H. Derivative Liability

5 32. Schacke directly or indirectly, controlled TradeMasters and did not act in good
6 faith, or knowingly induced, directly or indirectly, the acts constituting TradeMasters' violations
7 as alleged in the Complaint. Schacke is therefore liable for these violations pursuant to Section 8 13(b) of the Act, 17 U.S.C. § 13c(b).

9 33. Section 2(a)(1)(B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 2(a)(1)(B) (2012), and Regulation 1.2, 10 17 C.F.R. § 1.2 (2016) provide that the "act, omission, or failure of any official, agent, or other 11 person acting for any [. . .] corporation [. . .] within the scope of his employment or office shall 12 be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such [. . .] corporation . . . "

13 34. Because Schacke committed acts which constitute the alleged violations while 14 acting on behalf of TradeMasters and because these acts were within the scope of his 15 employment with, and operation of, TradeMasters, TradeMasters is liable for Schacke's conduct 16 that constitute the violations alleged in the Complaint.

17 III. ORDER FOR RELIEF

18 35. Unless restrained and enjoined by this Court, there is a reasonable likelihood that 19 Defendants will continue to engage in the acts and practices alleged in the Complaint and in 20 similar acts and practices in violation of the Act and Regulations.

17 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

18 36. The Commission's Motion for Summary Judgment against Defendant Schacke, 19 Motion for Default Judgment against Defendant TradeMasters and for the Imposition of a

1 Permanent Injunction, Disgorgement and a Civil Monetary Penalty Against Defendants is 2 GRANTED.

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

4 A. Permanent Injunction

5 37. Based upon and in connection with the foregoing conduct, pursuant to Section 6c
6 of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2012), defendant TradeMasters is permanently restrained, enjoined
7 and prohibited from directly or indirectly:

9 connection with any order to make, or the making of, any contract of sale of any 10 commodity for future delivery that is made, or to be made, for or on behalf of, or 11 with, any other person in violation of Sections 4b(a)(1)(A) and (C) of the Act, 12 7 U.S.C. §§ 6b(a)(1)(A) and (C) (2012);

13 b. Intentionally or recklessly using or employing, or attempting to use or employ, any 14 manipulative device, scheme, or artifice to defraud; making, or attempting to make,
15 any untrue or misleading statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact 16 necessary in order to make the statements made not untrue or misleading; or 17 engaging, or attempting to engage, in any act, practice, or course of business, which 18 operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person, in connection with 19 any swap, or contract of sale of any commodity in interstate commerce, or contract 20 for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any registered entity, in violation of Section 6(c)(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 9(1) (2012) and Commission Regulation 180.1(a), 17 C.F.R. § 180.1(a)(2016);

c. While acting as a CTA, employing any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud any client or prospective client, or engaging in any transaction, practice or course of 1 business which operates as a fraud or deceit upon any client or prospective client in 2 violation of Section 4o(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1) (2012);

3 d. Failing to register as a CTA in violation of Section 4m(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C.
4 § 6m(1) (2012); and
5 e. Failing to provide and prominently display required disclosures in connection with 6 the use of testimonials in advertisements or sales literature in violation of Regulation
7 4.41(a)(3), 17 C.F.R. § 4.41(a)(3) (2016).

8 38. Defendant TradeMasters is also permanently restrained, enjoined and prohibited
9 from directly or indirectly:

10 a. Trading on or subject to the rules of any registered entity, as that term is defined in 11 Section 1a(40) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(40) (2012), including, but not limited to, 12 trading for themselves or others;
13 b. Entering into any transactions involving “commodity interests” (as that term is 14 defined in regulation 1.3(yy), 17 C.F.R. § 1.3(yy) (2016) for its own personal account 15 or for any account in which it has a direct or indirect interest;
16 c. Having any commodity interests traded on its behalf;
17 d. Controlling or directing the trading for or on behalf of any other person or entity, 18 whether by power of attorney or otherwise, in any account involving commodity 19 interests;
20 e. Soliciting, receiving, or accepting any funds from any person for the purpose of purchasing or selling any commodity interests;
f. Applying for registration or claiming exemption from registration with the Commission in any capacity, and engaging in any activity requiring such registration

1 or exemption from registration with the Commission, except as provided for in 2 Commission Regulation 4.14(a)(9), 17 C.F.R. § 4.14(a)(9) (2016); and/or 3 g. Acting as a principal (as that term is defined in Commission Regulation 3.1(a),
4 17 C.F.R. § 3.1(a) (2016)), agent or any other officer or employee of any person

6 Commission, except as provided for in Commission Regulation 4.14(a)(9), 17 C.F.R.
7 § 4.14(a)(9) (2016).

8 39. Defendant TradeMasters is also permanently restrained, enjoined and prohibited

B. Disgorgement

40. Defendants TradeMasters and Schacke shall pay disgorgement, jointly and severally, in the amount of one-hundred-sixty-eight-thousand-six-hundred and twenty-six dollars ($168,626), plus post-judgment interest, within thirty (30) days of the date of entry of this Order (“Disgorgement Obligation”). Post-judgment interest shall accrue on the Disgorgement Obligation beginning on the date of entry of this Order and shall be determined by using the Treasury Bill rate prevailing on the date of entry of this Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1961 (2012).

41. To effect payments of the Disgorgement Obligation and the distribution of any disgorgement payments to Defendants' customers, the Court appoints the National Futures Association ("NFA"), a self-regulatory organization regulated by the CFTC, as Monitor ("Monitor"). Because the Monitor is acting as an officer of the Court in performing these services, the NFA shall not be liable for any action or inaction arising from NFA's appointment as Monitor, except those involving fraud.

42. Defendants shall make Disgorgement Obligation payments under this Order to the Monitor in the name "TradeMasters Disgorgement Fund" and shall send such Disgorgement Obligation payments by electronic funds transfer, or by U.S. postal money order certified check, bank cashier's, or bank money order, to a location specified by the Office of Administration, National Futures Association, 300 South Riverside Plaza, Suite 1800, Chicago, Illinois 60606, under cover letter that identifies the payment and the name and docket number of this proceeding. Defendants shall simultaneously transmit copies of the cover letter and the form of

1 payment to the Chief Financial Officer, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three
2 Lafayette Centre, 1155 21st Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20581.

3 43. The Monitor shall oversee the Disgorgement Obligation and shall distribute any 4 funds collected pro rata to Defendants' customers identified by the CFTC, or may defer such 5 distribution until such time as the Monitor deems appropriate. In the event that the amount of 6 Disgorgement Obligation payments to the Monitor are of a de minimis nature such that the 7 Monitor determines that the administrative cost of making a distribution to Defendants'
8 customers is impractical, the Monitor may, in its discretion, treat such disgorgement payments as 9 civil monetary payments, which the Monitor shall forward to the Commission following the 10 instructions for civil monetary penalty payments set forth below.

11 44. The Defendants shall cooperate with the Monitor as appropriate to provide such 12 information as the Monitor deems necessary and appropriate to identify customers to whom the 13 Monitor, in its sole discretion, may determine to include in any plan for distribution of any 14 Disgorgement Obligation payments. Defendants shall execute any documents necessary to 15 release funds that it has in any repository, bank, investment or other financial institution, 16 wherever located, in order to make partial or total payment toward the Disgorgement Obligation.

17 45. The Monitor shall provide the Commission at the beginning of each calendar year 18 with a report detailing the disbursement of funds to customers during the previous year. The 19 Monitor shall transmit this report under a cover letter that identifies the name and docket number 20 of this proceeding to the Chief Financial Officer, Commodity Futures Trading Commission, Three Lafayette Center, 1155 21st Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20581.

21 46. The amounts payable to each customer shall not limit the ability of any customer
22 from proving in a separate action that a greater amount is owed by Defendants or any other 23

1 person or entity, and nothing herein shall be construed to limit or abridge the rights of any 2 customer that exist under state or common law.

3 47. Pursuant to Rule 71 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, each of Defendants'
4 customers who suffered a loss is explicitly made an intended third-party beneficiary of this Order
5 and may seek to enforce this Order to obtain satisfaction of any portion of his share of the 6 Disgorgement Obligation that has not been paid by Defendants to ensure Defendants' continued 7 compliance with any provision of this Order and to hold Defendants in contempt for any violations of any provision of this Order.

8 C. Civil Monetary Penalty

9 48. Defendants TradeMasters and Schacke shall pay a civil monetary penalty, jointly judgment interest, within thirty (30) days of the date of the entry of this Order (the “CMP 11 Obligation”). Post-judgment interest shall accrue on the CMP Obligation beginning on the date 12 of entry of this Order and shall be determined by using the Treasury Bill rate prevailing on the date of entry of this Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961 (2012).
